

Examples of Including Disclosure Information for a CME Session in a NOTICE / FLYER Posted for Participants to See

The examples on the following page can be used to communicate disclosure information for planner(s) and presenter(s) to participants at a regularly scheduled series, such as a grand rounds or journal club.

This information can be:

- Provided as a notice/flyer posted where participants can see it prior to the start of the activity, such as a registration desk or where sign-in sheets are located

The notice/flyer example includes:

- The educational topic for the session
- Target audience
- Speaker and Planner disclosure information, including disclosure of no relevant financial relationships
- Accreditation and credit designation statements

You may include any other information that the participant may need in order to attend.

Documentation required within 30 days of the session:

- A copy of the notice/flyer containing the disclosure information, including disclosure of no relevant financial relationships
- Dated attestation that the disclosure information was provided to participants, signed by the person who is doing the attesting
- Accompanying Presenter Disclosure Form for any person with a conflict of interest, with the Resolution section completed prior to the activity date

Send documentation to: Julie ReBeau at juliwils@umich.edu.

University of Michigan
Comprehensive Cancer Center

Translational Research in Medicine Seminar Series
Presents

John C. Smith, MD

Professor of Immunology
University of Michigan School of Medicine

“Unusual Markers of Cancer Stem Cells.”

Wednesday, January 9, 2013

#3206CC

12 Noon – 1 PM

Admin Contact: x5-5555

Host: Alex Jones, MD

Target audience: Medical, radiation, and surgical oncologists; radiologists, pathologists, nurse practitioners, and researchers.

The University of Michigan Medical School is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Michigan Medical School designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The speaker, Dr. Smith, has no commercial relationship relevant to this presentation.

Dr. Jones, the faculty planner, has no commercial relationship relevant to this activity.